Professional Experience

Purple, Rock, Scissors // Orlando, Florida

Product Developer: January 2018–present

Wycliffe Bible Translators USA // Orlando, Florida

Front-End Developer: August 2014–January 2018

I work to craft effective solutions for Wycliffe's digital presence, including the main website, campaign landing pages, and collaborating with the writers and designers as part of the overall marketing strategy.

RELEVANT MEDIA GROUP // Winter Park, Florida

Web Producer: June 2011–April 2013 // Web Production Assistant: February 2011–June 2011

At RELEVANT, I led the digital team in updating and maintaining RELEVANTmagazine.com. I led front-end development on that site as well as RejectApathy.com, RELEVANT's social justice brand. I also headed up production of our email marketing, site takeover ads, client microsites, and interactive elements for our iPad magazine, as well as handling technical aspects of the websites, apps, and emails.
